

we were very happy that the do-not call went into affect as it has been a pleasure, not to be constantly getting calls from people we don't want to talk to.we hope this law will stay in affect, and if other people want to receive these calls,then let them do so by calling those companies involved, and give them there permission to call. We do not want to be called. THANK YOU

Dwyernine@aol.com